The Chairman speaks...

I believe most of you are aware that after his retirement, Brother Albinus has continued the work of the La Salle Brothers in Sarawak through the Yayasan LaSallian Kuching (YLK) which he founded in 2002 together with some former students of St Joseph namely, Datuk Chris Sim and William Chong and from Sacred Heart School, Dr. Lim Choon Yang and Jacob Wong to name a few. Years ago when Sibu and Kuching were like rural areas, most, if not all of us, have benefited from the years under the tutelage of the La Salle Brothers - discipline, hard work, confidence, perseverance and a holistic school education. Brother Albinus now through YLK, desires to pass this legacy to the children living in the rural areas especially those who are left behind in their studies, to the marginalised students and those who are deprived of the chance of conducive learning environment.

I am grateful and honoured on the trust placed on me by Brother Albinus and the other founding members to carry on this good work. Together with my committee and support from the members of LaSallian Education family and the caring corporate citizen and public, we hope to be able to enhance the delivery processes and to provide financial stability to the project.
